The Letter Black

Since I was a child,
I've been told how I should live my life
It didn't take long to forget what I once learned
I never believed that there was someone out there who loved me
Until I found the One who loves me as I am

I can't live without You
My heart will collapse into Your Hands
I can't live without You
You keep me alive
No, I'll never walk away

It's not easy for me to let someone in
I've been hurt so many times
This might take a while
I still have scars from when I was broken
But now I believe You are here for me
And You'll never go away
I'm holding on to the One who loves me as I am
As I am

I can't live without You
My heart will collapse into Your Hands
I can't live without You
You keep me alive
No, I'll never walk away

You pulled me out
And have taken all of my pain away
You make feel like I am free to live my life again
No I can't survive without You

I can't live without You
My heart will collapse into Your Hands
I can't live without You
You keep me alive
And I'll never walk away
