Let Me Be Your Angel

Christine

Look at me, I have fallen so in love with you
Please don't leave
Stay around, let me tell you all the things I feel
Won't you please?Let me be your angel
Let me be the one for you
Let me be your angel
Let me be the one you believe inYou may think I am much too young to understand
Don't be fooled
Like a child I look into your eyes and know someday
I'll make you mineLet me be your angel
Let me be the one for you
Let me be your angel
Let me be the one you believe inLet me be your angel
Let me be the one for you
Let me be your angel
Let me be the one you believe in, yeah, oh
