

L.L.H

Don Johnson Big Band

Hit me well I'm fit for hell I'll sip inhale
Everything I'm offered on this slippery trail
Infidels think they'll see the will prevail
Infant males who'd rather drink a different ale
Will simply fail or quickly sink their teeth into
Your skin and throw you off your rail
Like bingo bango bongo bon
Bingo bango bongo bon bongo bon
Can't you keep yourself in check?
I'll beat you with a stick inject you with a needle help forget
Help me keep myself in check
And beat me with a stick inject a needle help me recollect
You're open and naked
Don't blow this let's get started
You're hoping you're aching
For more than this it's starting
You're smoking and drinking
Don't blow this let's get started
You're broken and breaking
For more than this just start it
Now you're open naked hoping aching
Smoking drinking broken breaking
Stroke it shake it grope it make it grow
And take it home and save it
More than this is starting
There's more than this just start it
If you're slow you'll miss your target
Don't get slow now just get started
L.L.H. in a state of revelation
L.L.H. for greater elevation
Hell bent rage for a state of revelation
L.L.H. for elevation Right is wrong and left is right so you could get
From one too many rights a crooked neck
And by this logic your life is set
By respect and i'd expect your finest step
I believe you're proud to be discounted freeze the ground
In your surroundings howling "take your pick!"
Well connected to the people you proceed to fool deceive
Through moves and means that make you sick You're open naked hoping aching

Smoking drinking broken breaking
Stroke it shake it grope it make it grow
And take it home and save it
Save it more than this is starting
There's more than this just start it
If you're slow you'll miss your target
Don't get slow now just get started L.L.H. in a state of revelation
L.L.H. for greater elevation
Hell bent rage for a state of revelation
L.L.H. for elevation Melt the ice caps arctic heat
Your promises are hard to keep
Subtle wise cracks velvet dreams
Often heard seldom seen
Bring the lights down concentrate
Your eyes adjust and find their prey
Hunters trust your instinct will
Guide you toward an instant kill Is it time to fight it or a time to stall
All this time will coincide inside us all
But you find it appalling the finest line is drawn
Why get involved in an eye for an eye or a silent brawl
Is it time to be violent or a diamond dog
Or to call it divine and side with the blind and poor
Hiding your strong mind if you're provided more
Riding quite a storm in your own private war
But a spine can evolve with a minor resolve and a song and step
Driving along with an eye on the road for the longest trek
All that's kept you warm this far is raw respect
There's more just go get yours and start exploring quick You're open and naked
Don't blow this let's get started
You're hoping you're aching
For more than this it's started
You're smoking drinking
Don't blow this let's get started
You're broken breaking
For more than this just start it
Now you're open naked hoping aching
Smoking drinking broken breaking
Stroke it shake it grope it make it grow
And take it home and save it
More than this is starting
There's more than this just start it
If you're slow you'll miss your target
Hell bent rage for a state of revelation

L.L.H. for elevationHit your target and destroy it
Let's get started and enjoy it
