

Fading Away (Atomix Sound Rem)

Elegant Machinery

Standing there on her own hiding her face from the crowd "oh god what kind of a world this is"
So many scars that hurts scars that never faded a sweet caress she softly miss Fading away
in the darkest hour
like a withering flower
Fading away
in the darkest night
she's a shade of her youth Standing there in the dark all is real but still unseen she looks around with a sign of grief She needs someone who cares someone who listens to those words of disbelief Fading away
in the darkest hour
like a withering flower
Fading away
in the darkest night
she's a shade of her youth
"Take these broken wings of mine and teach me how to live my life" Fading away...
