Museum

Donovan

I drink sweet wine for breakfast, I slept about an hour or so
Smiled a little in the silence, deciding on where to go
"Meet me under the whale in the Natural History Museum"
I think that's what she said, a little bit sad about having to leave themYawning in the sun, like a child I run
But don't do it if you don't want to, I wouldn't do a thing like that No, don't it if you don't want to, I wouldn't do a thing like that
How little do you speak of beauty, isn't it a shame, what ho?Maybe you should go get a power ring, you'd make all your troubles go
There she stood in drag, just-a lookin' cool in astrakhan
She's lookin' just a little wiped out, she said I looked like Peter Pan
Yawning in the sun, oh baby, like a child I runBut don't do it if you don't want to
I wouldn't do a thing like that
Oh no, no, don't do it if you don't want to
I wouldn't do a thing like that
Don't do it
