Before The Fight Ends You

Hatebreed

(Intro)
Go!
(Verse)
Yea
Standing here, I can guess the words
Failed to hit the page
Touring in silence, dirty thoughts to create
There?s no safe words, there?s no stasis
There?s no fixate the broken places
I say just one goes just for reduction
A selfless child?s dream of a sunshine
(Chorus)
End the fight!
Before the fight ends you
This could be the day
Things only fall in the hands we raise
End the fight!
Before the fight ends you
Of all the lies I?ve told, this is the least untrue
(Verse)
All the pictures didn?t change
But the people in them did
Monument stones always crumble
When the pillars have
Maybe the light is fading as the child closes in
But who are you to see this if this journey just begins?
(Bridge)
For getting nothing
For giving so much less
Picked up all your coin you never knew
There?s another one that knows you the best
Now end the fight!
(Chorus)
End the fight!
Before the fight ends you

This could be the day
Things only fall in the hands we raise
End the fight!

Before the fight ends you
Of all the lies I?ve told, this is the least untrue
I?d like to forget yesterday when I?m living through today
I do not know what tomorrow brings or what it might take away
(Bridge)
For getting nothing
For giving so much less
Picked up all your coin you never knew
There?s another one that knows you the best
End the fight!
End the fight!
End the fight!
Before the fight ends you
Ah come on!
For getting nothing
End the fight!
For giving less
Before the fight ends you
For getting nothing
End the fight!
For giving less
Before the fight ends you
For getting nothing
End the fight!
For giving less
Before the fight ends you
For getting nothing
End the fight!
For giving less
Before the fight ends you
