

Brand New Bitch

Anjulie

Don't need your sad face, sorry ba-by
But I've made up my mind, I've made up my mind
Don't need a reason, been there done done
Just step back in time, yeah, back in time

Yeah I know that the sex was good
I remember I was showing you what to do, yeah yeah
Up against the walls, bathroom stalls,
Boo, I was so fucking blind, so fucking blind
And now I'm singing

Oh, oh, been feeling so fly since you've been gone
My face to the sky, sunglasses on
Turnin' up the beat so sick
I'm like a brand new bitch
Oh, oh, been feeling so fly since you've been gone
My face to the sky, sunglasses on
Turnin' up the beat so sick
I'm like a brand new bitch

Don't need a rescue, it's all good
Baby, I been hittin' my stride, hittin' my stride
I got my red lipstick on, engine's revving
You're so far behind, I'm taking mine

Yeah I know that you (uhh) me good
I remember when I showed you a thing or two, yeah, yeah
Got through me on my back, look at me, yeah
Bet ya thought I'd never survive, well I'm still alive
And now I'm singing

Oh, oh, been feeling so fly since you've been gone
My face to the sky, sunglasses on
Turnin' up the beat so sick
I'm like a brand new bitch
Oh, oh, been feeling so fly since you've been gone
My face to the sky, sunglasses on
Turnin' up the beat so sick
I'm like a brand new bitch

I'm like a, I'm like a, I'm like a brand new
I'm like a, I'm like a, I'm like a brand, brand
Turnin' up the, turnin' up the, turnin' up the beat so sick
I'm like a brand new bitch

You wouldn't recognize me,
Steady now that frown on your face
Nothing like I used to be, be, be,
And now I'm singing

Oh, oh, been feeling so fly since you've been gone
My face to the sky, sunglasses on
Turnin' up the beat so sick (yup, yup)
I'm like a brand new bitch
I'm like a, I'm like a, I'm like a brand new
I'm like a, I'm like a, I'm like a brand, brand
Turnin' up the, turnin' up the, turnin' up the beat so sick (yup, yup)
I'm like a brand new bitch
I'm like a, I'm like a, I'm like a brand new
I'm like a, I'm like a, I'm like a brand, brand
Turnin' up the, turnin' up the, turnin' up the beat so sick (yup, yup)
I'm like a brand new bitch
