Love Will Rise Again

2 Vibez

Love will rise again
Put a smile upon your face, and lift you to a higher place
Love will rise again
A summer love to hold my hand, and take me on the pure white sand
Love will rise again

(hm...)

The bed is empty now, I watch the time go by
Where are you?
Always on my mind
In between my days
Anxiously I wait, your return
Before it get's too late
You can bring me back to life
Erase the cold and lonely nights
Be right here
Let me feel you one more time, and give me sparkle, give me shine
Please be mine

Love will rise again
Put a smile upon your face, and lift you to a higher place
Love will rise again
A summer love to hold my hand, and take me on the pure white sand

Love will rise again
Love will rise again
And love will rise again
Love will rise again
Love will rise again
And love will rise again
Rise again

It's all for you tonight, I kiss your salty lips
You don't mind, now that you are mine
When you come and go, I sing you back to me
Nice and slow, and love will rise again
You can bring me back to life
Erase the cold and lonely nights

Let me feel you one more time, and give me sparkle, give me shine
Please be mine

Love will rise again
Love will rise again
And love will rise again
Love will rise again
Love will rise again
And love will rise again
Rise again, rise again
