

This Night Is the Coroner's

And Hell Followed With

Through your teeth will my desire
Give life to this sickening perversion
    This distortion of passion
Oh, how this infernal evening hath
Surrendered the beat of my heartWith every lacerating breath
    Do my veins swell in eager await Devour me, I beg of you in quickened breath
    My flesh enveloped in this most
Disgusting forms of mortal indulgenceDo not deny me pleasure
    For we now unabridged will be complete
As I shall rest inside of you forever
    In orgasmic captivation
Am I pleased with such voracityLet go your moral anchor and descend beside me
    Our hands in flesh made metaphor, entwined forever
    This love I have offered in banquet be yours
    The entombment within my only desire
