Falling Apart

Dilana

I don't believe what a fool I've been
Crashing into your lies again and again
One day I'll repair broken thoughts in my head
I pinch my skin there's no feeling

Choking under a shadow of pain
Am I going insane? Does it matter?

Chasing after whats never been real
Tell me why do I feel untogether

I'm not falling in love
I'm falling apart
Am I'm getting confused
Cause I'm loosing my heart
I'm so bloody messed up
I don't know where to start, sick of hurting
I tried so hard, I'm not falling in love

Don't go hiding behind that same old disguise
Caught up in a place that holds you frozen inside
I burn the sky so you could find your way

You leave me here in the dark pleading

Drowning under a desert of rain
Am I going insane?
Does it matter?
I'm craving something much warmer than steel
Tell me why do I feel untogether

Cause I'm not falling in love
I'm falling apart
Am I'm getting confused
Cause I'm loosing my heart
I'm so bloody messed up
I don't know where to start, sick of hurting
I'm trying, I'm trying,
I'm not falling in love

Looking over an ocean of pain
If I took all the blame, would it matter?

Cause I'm not falling in love
I'm falling apart
Am I'm getting confused
Cause I'm loosing my heart
I'm so bloody fucked up
I don't know where to start, sick of hurting
I tried so hard

I'm falling, I'm falling apart
I'm falling apart
