

Say I Am

Gavin DeGraw

One way, one way to the center of your heart
Slow down, the world is too loud and this loneliness too hard
We should let it out, just to be closer
Well, I need you now, over and over We could stay up in the Sunday room
As we share these words unspoken
When you ask me if I'm in love with you
I would say you must be joking
I would say I, I would say I am Slowly, show me what you hold and what you hide
Tell me that you really believe and I'll see it in your eyes
But when you've hurt so much, you're scared to get closer
You can let it out, over and over We could stay up in the Sunday room
As we share these words unspoken
When you ask me if I'm in love with you
I would say you must be joking
I would say I, I would say I am I could show you the river, we'll wash in the water
Give me your faith, there's so many waves We could stay up in the Sunday room
As we share these words unspoken
When you ask me if I'm in love with you
I would say you must be joking
I would say I, I would say I am
I would say I am
I could show you the river, we could wash in the water
