I lost track of good sense 'cause I never Learned when to stopAnd somewhere along the way I dragged you
Into this messI chose to fight but I lost
I ruined all and you paid the cost
But I hope that you wouldTurn and stay with me
I know you hate me now
But now I need you toTurn and stay with me
Through these tormenting days
That only you can alleviateI did everything I feared I would do
When the pressure cracked meSome say it's hate, some say it's fate
That put those words in my mouth as I raged
But I hope that you wouldTurn and stay with me
I know you hate me now
But now I need you toTurn and stay with me
Through these tormenting days
That only you can alleviateAnd I'm so sorry
You have to watch me crawl
But for once in my life
I know I'm too weak to surviveI'm closer now
Surrender is near
Pull me to you, pull me up
I'm closer now
Surrender is near
Pull me to youTurn and stay with me
I know you hate me now
But now I need you to
