

Glory In the Highest

Fellowship Creative

The beginning and end, higher than all Even Kings and the waves kneel at your call
And the demons, they shutter at the sound of Your name
Not even death could put you away

Glory, glory, glory
in the highest, highest Glory, glory, glory
in the highest, highest
My heart and soul will sing Shout out with everything Glory in the highest
