

Fallen To Pieces

Halloween

Thunder, rain, my aching mind
Arise from a dream
Step aside into the shadows
Brightness just borrowed
For too short a time
Why must I die one more time if I try?
Way down I pray but the skies turn to gray
How long lived I waiting? How long can live?
I run high and low
I'm fallen to pieces
My heart cried for you
I'm fallen to pieces
Say, do you see you're just playing with me?
Way down I flee from your spell and appeal
No more I'll be waiting, no longer I'll live
I run high and low
I'm fallen to pieces
My heart cried for you
I'm fallen to pieces
Hold on
Hold on
Lies turn to ties for ill famed and disguised
One day you
