Insurrection

Gamma Ray

I look out to the stormy sea
I wish upon a star
Pulsating light to comfort me
But oh, it seems so farSo as I stand I realize I wish that I'll be there About to give up all my life and vanish in thin airBut I know, as I dream all the world has passed me by and I know I should do better for you and me tonightI'm coming home, Yeah!There were stars in the eyes at the masquerade and the King was lost in the grand illusion Well, the the day has come, they've lost the way and the Joker laughs at the mass confusion They stand and stareNow listen all you people
This is what I say Raise my voice in anger
I'm trying to get away
... from allNow listen, what you're doing is just not good at all the silly games you're playing are raising up the wallTime goes by, the world we love is gone... foreverAre we ever gonna change our way
Will we ever stop the fury
Is it life or will we just decay
Will we lose or stand in gloryInsurrection-God election
Heavy changes make my day
Storm the spire, Hearts on fire
Storm is coming on its wayInsurrection, InsurrectionMasses will be rising, marching forces neutralising all the powers in the world with raging fury Enemies are falling down, their blood is spilled on holy ground the end is near for maximizing profitsWhy do we have to fight, why?
Close your eyes and dieAre we ever gonna change our way
Will we ever stop the fury
Is it life or will we just decay
Will we lose or stand in gloryInsurrection-God election
Heavy changes, disobey
Storm the spire, hearts on fire
Storm is coming on its wayInsurrectionThe king of damnation learned from the old
The harvest of fury

Love is the answer, blood is the oath Red are the canyons, ohFriend or foe, we have been trying Kings and Queens, all have been lying All the same, all devastating
All I see when contemplating hopeHere I stand alone, and I have lost the way
The eyes of a believer, turning to stone Silent, no more tears, the emptiness is mine
Only Rain is falling, dripping on the trail Father of the earth, I'm calling you Dry your tears away and give me hope Fill my heart with strength
And give power to my soul
Let magic fill the sky and take me home singing... ooh, let me go!Are we ever gonna change our way
Will we ever stop the fury
Is it life or will we just decay
We must fight to stand in gloryInsurrection-God election
Heavy changes, disobey
Storm the spire, hearts on fire
Storm is coming on its wayI look out to the stormy sea
I wish upon a star...
