Musiq Soulchild

Oh yeah
Alright, alright, alright
Alright, alright, alright We've been chilling together for a while
And I'm finding it hard to figure you out
See 'cause I can't tell if you wanna be
My girl or just cool First you catch an attitude when my phone goes off
Sometimes you act like you don't care at all
Things that you say and do leaves me so confused
When you know I'm feeling you Won't you quit playing baby?
Why you gon' front, won't you just say it?
Say what you really want
If you ain't with it, just stop leading me on I don't mean to pressure you baby
But you really need to make up your mind
Let me know what you really want
Stop wasting, wasting my time 'Cause on the real, real I could be out
And find someone who's down with what I'm about Instead I'm waiting on you to decide if
I'm the one that you want in your life Won't you quit playing baby?
Why you gon' front, won't you just say it?
Say what you really want
If you ain't with it, just stop leading me on Hey, baby tell me why must you treat me this way
How about you come on and stop playing these games?
Let me know what it is you really wanna do
So, I can know how I should feel when I'm dealing with you Won't you quit playing baby?
Why you gon' front, won't you just say it?
Say what you really want
If you ain't with it, just stop leading me on Won't you quit playing baby?
Why you gon' front, won't you just say it?
Say what you really want
If you ain't with it, just stop leading me on
