One Glass Too Many

Emma Hill

I'm a bit to honest. maybe out of line
I've gone an lost my cover, believe me I was fine

I might be to honest but at least I ain't a liar
Yeah I bed you think it's funny when your off alone with her

Poor little girl with a big bad crush, we're hanging on the line
Between too much and not enough

So love me if you want, but just don't lead me on

Well crying don't bring nothing when you try and live a lie
And paths don't always end right when you try and cross them twice

And I can look you in the when she looks the other way
But it still don't make you right, and it doesn't make you stay

So love me if you want, but just don't lead me on
Yeah love me if you want, but I'm trying to be strong

And you want me now when the lights down low
It's a ticket too freedom no one will no it but your Thinking of her I can see it in yours and I'm thinking of him
Starting to cry
Your gonna want me now

Too damm bad

Your gonna want me now

Too damm bad

Your gonna want me now

Too damm bad

Your gonna want me, want me

Your gonna want me now

It's too damm bad

Your gonna want me now it's too damm bad

Your gonna want me, your gonna want me

Your gonna want me, oh oh

So love me if you want, but just don't lead me on

Yeah love me if you want but I'm trying to be strong

Lyrics Submitted by Chloe windle

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/