Socialburn

Take back those tears that you sometimes cry
And I'll be right here 'til your fears subside
And it won't take long
You just need some time And why can't you see? That I want you, I need you
In everything that I do
I want you 'cause I love you
And everything about you Take back those years
That you try to hide
Relax yourself
Don't lose your mind And why can't you see who you can be? That I want you, I need you
In everything that I do
And I want you 'cause I love you
And everything about you 'Cause I want you, I need you
In everything that I do
And I need you 'cause I love you
And everything about you 'Cause I want you, I need you
In everything that I do
And I need you 'cause I love you
And everything about you Yes, I want you, I need you
In everything that I do
And I need you 'cause I love you
And everything about you
