Comedy SongÂ

Fool's Garden

Does anybody know the reason why
She didn't wake me up to say good-bye
She's left me right here lying in my bed
I feel so sadHello good morning darkness I feel blue
I guess she doesn't feel the same way too
There's something going wrong inside my head
I feel so sad and lonelyWhy don't you kiss me
Why don't you say that you miss me
What do you do to me
Oh baby don't you see that
I really miss you
And all I wanna do is kiss you
What do you do to me
Oh, what a dayCan anybody tell me where to go ?
So many different ways I do not know
I think I'm going straight back to my bed
Cause I feel sad.Can't buy honey, have no money
Dingledongleding
It's so funny Dirk's a bunny
Dingledongleding
Monkey, donkey ain't that funky
Dingledongleding
Dingledongle, dingledong I sing.I turn around and dream of honeymoon
While all the birds are singing out of tune
One day another chicken makes me glad
And you'll be sad and lonely, sad and lonelyWhy don't you kiss me
Why don't you say that you miss me
What do you do to me
Oh baby don't you see that
I really miss you
And all I wanna do is kiss you
What do you do to me
Don't leave me so lonely
Why Don't you kiss me
Why don't you say that you miss me
I know it's getting better
I know it's getting better
I know it's getting better
Oh, what a day !
