

Walk in Fire (Rich Costey Mix)

Doves

Seems, seems there's nothing,
That you couldn't do,
With the drink inside of you,
Is there nothing,
You'd not do,
With a drink in you. I've always know,
That you felt that pain,
And it had to start to show,
It's driven you insane,
I could lie, but I can't,
Cause you know it's true. You tell me, you say,
Walk in fire, you walk in fire
You're not afraid till you,
Walk in fire,
Walk with fire,
Walk in fire. You always been,
A loose cannon gone,
And the way you were back then,
You tick on anyone,
It takes years, to accept it all
To be yourself. You tell me, you say,
Walk in fire, you walk in fire
You're not afraid, till you,
Walk in fire,
Walk with fire,
You walk in fire. On and on and in the day,
Fool ourselves, we ain't the same,
Everyone has stayed away,
Man I always felt your pain.
On and on I tell myself,
We fool ourselves we ain't the same,
Everyone has stayed away,
Man I always felt your pain. You tell me, you say,
You walk in fire, you walk in fire
You're not afraid, till you,
You walk in fire,
Walk with fire,
Walk in fire.
