

Here to Stay

Malina

In the beginning
you shone a brand
new limelight on me
I came out of darkness,
I came out of any vicious company
You drew me aside,
so satisfied with my pliancy Free my soul tied But don't you pass me by,
now that I believe You're here to stay
So many times I've been trying to make it real I cannot say "I loved", for who can say
he was shot yesterday?
So I keep my soul aside,
upon this tide,
afraid of my decay
May not be now,
but still somehow you'll let me slip away Years go by,
I know myself a little more
As I go, I know you more than you'll ever know. Free my soul...
