

Enemy

Grinspoon

If you told me something that wasn't true
You do
Stop and have a look just exactly what you
You do Did I go to fast?
Did I go to slow?
I know something
That you might want to know Will you wait while I answer your call?
I know youre the enemy
Just need some time to escape from it all
This could be the enemy Since you found another new place to hide
I smile
Set apart from all of the things thats inside
Tonight If I went to fast
Did I go to slow?
I know something
That you dont want to know Will you wait while I answer your call?
I know youre the enemy
Just need some time to escape from if all
This could be the enemy, the enemy If I went to fast
Did I go to slow
I know something
That you dont want to know Will you wait while I answer your call?
I know youre the enemy
Just need some time to escape from it all
This could be the enemy
