Tip Toe

Joanna

Well, I've been spendin' so much time
Defending and denying
All my doubts and my suspicion
It's my gentle dispositionBut this person that I met
And I like so much, I've said
Won't you come into my life?
Now he's showin' a different sideI can't seem to wake up
Wise up and walk away
But I can't stay and watch him fadeI want to tip toe through your mind
Dance with the stranger locked behind those eyes
I'm gonna slip right under your clothes
I want you to drive me to the edge of your soul'Cause I can't feel, I can't love, I can't hold
Someone I don't know, someone I don't knowThere's still a moment in your smile
That if you hold for just a while
Is like a window to the past
To a day I thought we'd lastBut every night your empty gaze
Drags you further down the maze
And I won't follow, I won't fight
When it's so easy to just hideI can't seem to wake up
Wise up and walk away
But I can't wait and watch him breakI want to tip toe through your mind
Dance with the stranger locked behind those eyes
I'm gonna slip right under your clothes
I want you to drive me to the edge of your soul'Cause I can't feel, I can't love, I can't hold
Someone I don't know, someone I don't knowI can't feel ya, I can't love ya, I can't hold you
I can't feel you, I can't love you, I can't hold youI want to tip toe through your mind
Dance with the stranger locked behind those eyes
I'm gonna slip right under your clothes
I want you to drive me to the edge of your soulI want to tip toe through your mind
Dance with the stranger locked behind those eyes
I'm gonna slip right under your clothes
I want you to drive me to the edge of your soul'Cause I can't feel, I can't love, I can't hold
'Cause I can't feel, I can't love, I can't hold
'Cause I can't feel, I can't love, I can't hold
Someone I don't know, someone I don't knowI don't know, don't know
