Who's It Gonna Be

Chris Lane

(Who, who)Five hundred horses outside at the valet

I got the keys, if you want we can leave here tonight

24/7, your body's on my brain

But it don't mean ish if somebody else is on your mind'Cause I know, yeah I know, yeah I know

And I'm touchin' on you

That you know, yeah you know, yeah you know

What you're getting into

I don't care what he does

'Cause he's only wasting his time

And I know what you like, what you likeWho's it gonna be?

Baby is it him or me?

We can fix this easily

If you just follow me home now

Who's it gonna be?

'Cause you know he can't compete

I'm the only one you need

You should get me at hello now

Who's it gonna be? (Who)(Gonna be, gonna be, who)It's paradise when I'm touching your body

Put my hands on your waist

We can keep making ways on if you want

You should be mine

'Cause you just ain't anybody

Take it or leave, but I'll never leave you aloneSo who's it gonna be?

Baby is it him or me?

We can fix this easily

If you just follow me home now

Who's it gonna be?

'Cause you know he can't compete

I'm the only one you need

You should get me at hello now

Who's it gonna be? (Who)(Gonna be, gonna be, who)

(Gonna be, gonna be)'Cause I know, yeah I know, yeah I know

And I'm touchin' on you

That you know, yeah you know, yeah you know

What you're getting into

I don't care what he does

'Cause he's only wasting his time

And I got what you like, what you likeSo who's it gonna be?

Baby is it him or me?

We can fix this easily
If you just follow me home now
Who's it gonna be?
'Cause you know he can't compete
I'm the only one you need
You should get me at hello now
Who's it gonna be? (Who)(Gonna be, gonna be, who)
(Gonna be, gonna be, who)
(Gonna be, gonna be, who)
(Gonna be, gonna be)
