

She Can't Get That

Blake Shelton

He meets her at the front door, he can tell she's had a hard day, at work.

She's been needing him and he's sure been wantin' her.

He touches her with tenderness,takes her in his arms and takes it slow

What a shame she can't get that at home.[Chorus]

What a shame, she, can't get that at home

There's nothing back there but a lonely house and love ain't all about wood and stone

He satisfies all her needs and wants

What a shame she can't get that at home.After the lovin', they lie there and talk for a while.

She loves how he listens, and he sure loves to see her smile.

He wants to keep her, but he loves her enough to let her go.

What a shame, she can't, get that at home[Chorus]
