You Are

Virtue

It's like I'm climbing up this mountain
But my strength's too weak to make it to the top
It's like I'm tryin' wanna run a marathon
But no legs or feet hopin' that I won't drop
It's like I'm swimming in the ocean,
But no air to breathe and no one to rescue me
That's every second without you,
I just can't do this without youSo, when the world says yes
Lord, I'll say no
And when there's trouble all around me
I know I have some place to go
You give me victory,
You've got my whole life in your hands,
I want the world to understand who you are
You are, you are the alpha-omega
You are, you are,
There's nobody greater,
Your love stronger than anything else that I ever felt before
You are, you are, you're my God.It's like I'm standing on a battlefield
But everyone points their weapons at me
It's like I'm trying to find a way out
But then I get blind in and I cannot see
It's like I'm fighting for my life
But then a flat line's on the EKG
That's every second without you,
Lord, there's no me without you
So, when the world says yes
Lord, I'll say no
And when there's trouble all around me
I know I have some place to go
You give me victory,
You've got my whole life in your hands,
I want the world to understand who you areYou are, you are the alpha-omega
You are, you are,
There's nobody greater,
Your love stronger than anything else that I ever felt before
You are, you are, you're my God.In every situation the darkness fades away,
The dead will come to life,
'Cause there is healing in your life

I was afraid before you,
You came to save the day,
You've been here from the start,
You mended up my broken heartYou are, you are the alpha-omega (Oh, yes, you are)
You are, you are,
There's nobody greater,
Your love stronger than anything else that I ever felt before
You are, you are, you're my God.
