

End of the World

Night Riots

Sudden doom

It could come anytime

Only with you would it feel right to go

Flashfire, a bitter rapid

My desire, I'm wrong for you
Keep safe, don't let me happen too late
Keep safe, be brave, I am on my way
Through floods and hurricanes

And dangerous earthquakes

At the end of the world

I will fight to find you

However long it takes

At the end of the world

At the end of the world

I will fight to find you

The earth dies

Passion for your ghost

Smoldering skies

Your paint is vibrant

Cities burn

Gray horizons

In hills and curves, I see your shade
Keep safe, don't let me happen too late

Keep safe, be brave, I am on my way
Through floods and hurricanes

And dangerous earthquakes

At the end of the world

I will fight to find you

However long it takes

At the end of the world (end of the world)

At the end of the world

I will fight to find you

You wake me from my sleep

Nothing seems as real

I can't tell what's a dream

You and I, you and I belong out
Through floods and hurricanes

And dangerous earthquakes

At the end of the world

I will fight to find you

However long it takes

At the end of the world (end of the world)

At the end of the world

I will fight to find you
