Depression Unrest

Kreator

Ending all religions
Changes yet to come
Whole new situation
Fear became too strongSend a spark of hatred
To where I cannot rest
My fate's depending on me
Pushed to the testDepression unrest
As I watch the sky
The sparks will keep on fallin'
And I despise you nowPraying for forgiveness
Waiting for a sign
It cannot be forgotten
A symbol used to shineFeel the spark of hatred
Spreading like some pest
Emotional mutation
Curse of the westDepression unrest
As I watch the sky
The sparks will keep on fallin'
And I despise you nowDepression unrest
As I watch the sky
The sparks will keep on fallin'
And I despise you nowDepression unrest
As cultures die
The sparks will keep on fallin'
And I hate you now
