

Undecided

Chelsea Williams

And one by one youâ€™ll find every line on your palm
And come to see that
Nothingâ€™s in its place or where it should be
So you rearrange your mind

You are dreaming loud but you only talk about it
Whatâ€™s your new fling now and could you live without it
You fold your brow and now you are undecided
Watch out all that gust will blow you down

You falsify your smile just to please me
Iâ€™ll never know you
Youâ€™re covered up in makeup
Like a model

Oh you just live like you breathe
So involuntary

You are dreaming loud but you only talk about it
Whatâ€™s your new fling now and could you live without it
You fold your brow and now you are undecided
Watch out all that gust will blow you down
