Lift

Paul Stanley

Fallen like the rain crashin' down again
Sinkin' all alone
The walls are closin' in, the pain is just beginnin'
A feelin' like I've never known, I've never knownI never wanted to ever hurt you
The trust is broken, salvationLift me, lift me up
Forgive me with your touch
Lift me higher
Straight to your loveShaken to the ground, fear is wrapped around me
Fighting for my life
Shattered by the truth, scattered like the ashes
All that's left of you and I, I realizedAll you wanted was something real
And now I'm hauntedLift me, lift me up
Forgive me with your touch
Lift me higher
Straight to your loveI hear the howlin' of the wind
It's cryin' out your name
I'd give my soul if we could start
All over, all over againI never wanted to ever hurt you
My world is ending, salvationLift me, lift me up
Forgive me with your touch
Lift me higher
Straight to your loveHeal me, save my life
Redeem me, make us one
Lift me higher
Straight to your love
