

The Whole Of The Moon

Jennifer Warnes

I pictured a rainbow
You held it in your hands
I had flashes
You saw the plan I wandered out in the world for years
While you just stayed in your room
I saw the crescent
You saw the whole of the moon
The whole of the moon You were there in the turnstiles
With the wind at your heels
You stretched for the stars
And you know how it feels To reach too high
Too far
Too soon
You saw the whole of the moon I was grounded
While you filled the skies
I was dumbfounded by truth
You cut through lies I saw the rain dirty valley
You saw "Brigadoon"
I saw the crescent
You saw the whole of the moon I spoke about wings
You just flew
I wondered, I guessed and I tried
You just knew
I sighed But you swooned
I saw the crescent
You saw the whole of the moon
The whole of the moon
The whole of the moon The torch in your pocket
And the wind on your heels
You climbed on a ladder
And you know how it feels
To reach too high
Too far
Too soon
You saw the whole of the moon
The whole of the moon Popcorn and cannonballs
All the season's fears
Trumpets, towers, and tenements
Wide oceans full of tears Flags, rags, ferryboats

Senators and scars
Every precious dream and vision
Underneath the stars You climbed on a ladder
With the wind in your sails
You came like a comet
Blazing your trail Too high
Too far
Too soon
