Mr. Lover

Andrew Allen

Mr. Lover, is there any other that you see?
Find another, forget about the brother that you need.
You only wanna do, what's right for you.

Mr. Hater, be a little later to come home.
Raise the fader, did you forget you made her she's your own.
You always try to say, there's another way,
But there ain't one this time no

Paradise is only waiting, for you to arrive
Paradise is only waiting, to see if you survive
Paradise is only waiting for you,
To see if love comes back this time.

Mr. Liar, may I just inquire 'bout one thing?
Where's the fire? Did your love retire before spring?
Are you for hire?
'Cause no one want a crier on the backseat of lovin',
When the push comes to shovin'
Tell me will you just be gone again?

Paradise is only waiting, for you to arrive
Paradise is only waiting, to see if you survive
Paradise is only waiting for you,
To see if love comes back this time.

And I know you are lyin',
And I know you've been cryin'
And I know that you're Mr. Lover to the core,
And I know you've been fakin'
And I know your heart's been breakin'
But you know you gotta man up to this game, because

Paradise is only waiting, for you to arrive
Paradise is only waiting, to see if you survive
Paradise is only waiting for you,
To see if love comes back this time.
