Carousel

Michael Jackson

She's from a world Of popcorn and candy Pony rides for a dime Little children laughingI'm from a world Of disappointments and confusions But I want her to be mineI started talking She kept on walking She disappeared into the crowd, ohI lost my heart On the carousel

To a circus girl

Who left my heart in piecesLost my heart

On the carousel

To a circus girl

Who ran awayTwo different people in love for an instant

They say that the circus came today

Sometimes I can hear the calliope

And I can hear her calling me(I lost my heart)

Lost my heart

(On the carousel)

Lost my girl

(To a circus girl)

Who ran awayI lost

(Lost my heart)

I lost my girl

(On the carousel)

(To a circus girl)
