

Porchlight

Neko Case

So far away, curses wild upon you
Hungry and gaining
Porchlight burns so far away
Miles away Days have gone by and I've barely gone
Safe on the road that speeds from your front door
I can't turn around 'cause I long to be forgiven It hangs in my hair and the hems of my clothes
I've thought in the madness, my arms could not hold
I can't tell you why 'cause I long to be forgiven So far away, curses wild upon you
Hungry and gaining
Porchlight burns so far away
Miles away I'm sorry to tread on your patience, my dear
My heart might be willin' by this time next year
I can't make you wait 'cause I long to be forgiven So far away, curses wild upon you
Hungry and gaining
Porchlight burns so far away
Miles away
