

Kylie

Bear Vs. Shark

just let me fall into your movements, movements of subtle surrender.
i need to recycle all the feelings i had in the past, paint me a picture
a unique image of your inner kept feelings Kylie say the words with silent ears and silent hands ive seen a boat and it seem to be sinking ive seen a boat and its stuck on dry land saw you last night
you were walking with the angels tried to remember what it means to freeze it up ive seen a boat and it seemed to be sinking
just a key to the concept I'm feeling give me your heart
won't you give me your heart and i'll give you my hand
said i saw you last night
now it seems to me that missing photos
equal missing memories
say the words
with silent ears and silent hands dont you let it go
let it go
let it go
dont let it way again away again
come on kylie
give me your heart

now you get what you deserve
