

Oughta Be A Law

Firehouse

Up against the wall and spread baby
Ha, ha, ha
It's time to pull over and put 'em all down
Aaoo
Ooh, the lady in red, well she's drivin' me mad
Her very first offense was just lookin' at me
But that second glance was a felony
Ooh, the lady's so fine, but I think it's a crime
She's just too much for a man like me
They'd better lock her away and throw out the key
(There oughta be a law)
Against a girl like you
(Oughta be a law)
Against the things you do
(Oughta be a law)
For breakin' hearts in two
(There oughta be a law)
Against a girl like you
Against a girl like you, Baby
Ooh, the lady is cruel and she's breakin' the rules
If only looks could kill, she'd be killin' me
Guilty, murder one in the first degree
Ooh, the lady's unkind, she's got me doin' time
She's just too much for a man like me
They'd better lock her away and throw out the key
(There oughta be a law)
Against a girl like you
(Oughta be a law)
Against the things you do
(Oughta be a law)
For breakin' hearts in two
(There oughta be a law)
Against a girl like you
Against a girl like you, Baby

Uhh ahh
Ha, ha, ha
You know, I'm gonna take you downtown
Strip you down and throw you in the slammer, baby

I'm gonna throw the book at you, girl

Stick 'em up

(There oughta be a law)

Against a girl like you

(Oughta be a law)

Against the things you do

(Oughta be a law)

For breakin' hearts in two

(There oughta be a law against)

Yea, yea

(There oughta be a law)

Against a girl like you

(Oughta be a law)

Against the things you do

(Oughta be a law)

For breakin' hearts in two

(There oughta be a law)

Oh yea

(There oughta be a law)

Against a girl like you

(Oughta be a law)

Against the things you do

(Oughta be a law)

Broke my heart in two

(There oughta be a law)

(There oughta be a law)

Oughta be a law

(There oughta be a law)
