

All That Shit Is Gone

Carolina Liar

I never got it right
That's how this breaks down
I never see things through
I always carry the weight for you
For you And now I hesitate
With every step I take
I feel my back might break
If I don't leave today Always trying to please everyone that I met
And I ended up losing it all But all that shit is gone now
La la la, la
All that shit is gone now
La la la, la I guess I felt abused
Is that something you chose?
In a cheap disguise
I did everything for you I was trying to please everyone that I met
And I ended up losing it all But all that shit is gone now
La la la, la
All that shit is gone now
La la la, la La la la la la la
La la la la la
La la la la la la
La la la la la All that shit is gone now
La la la, la
All that shit is gone now
La la la, la
La la la, la I never got it right
Always carry the weight for you
