

On A Saturday Nite

Journey

Mama said, she said, "It's gonna be alright"
Yes she did, well come to bed and turn out the light
She's sleeping there, she's dreaming through her life

Yes, she is

Well, you know you've done no wrong

All you done is sing this song

You sing this song, yeah

On a Saturday nite

On a Saturday nite

Everything is alright, wooh

That's when the bad man meets his fate

Sitting there, you're feeling only second rate

You're sorry now, you've come a little bit too late

Yes, you did

But when you come around

You only bring you down

You feel a clown, yeah

On a Saturday nite

On a Saturday nite

Everything is alright, yeah

Mama said, she said, "It's gonna be alright"
You know she said, "You've got to see the coming light
You know you are, you're riding through your life
Yes, you are"

Well, you know you've done your best

All you need's a little rest

You've done your best, yes

On a Saturday nite

On a Saturday nite

Everything is alright

Everything is alright

On a Saturday nite

On a Saturday nite

Everything is alright

Everything is alright

Saturday nite

Saturday nite

Saturday nite
