

The Blues Don't Care

Nat "King" Cole

The blues don't care, who's got 'em
The blues don't care, who cries
And the nights don't care who's lonely
Or whose tears are in whose eyes
When someones heart is broken
The blues are not to blame
'Cause the blues don't care who's got 'em
So they just added my name
And the nights don't care who's lonely
Or whose tears are in whose eyes
When someones heart is broken
The blues are not to blame
'Cause the blues don't care who's got 'em
So they just added my name
