So Long

Zooey Deschanel & M. Ward

It's not complicated but very hard to grasp
But every time I see you I laugh
I won't get too sappy, I've had no epiphany
I just enjoy your companyYou test my nerves, it makes me stronger
So can you bother me a little bit longer?Hate to say goodbye, goodbye
Hate to see the end, the end
'Cause it's been so long since I've made a friendHate to say goodbye, goodbye
Hate to see the end, the end
'Cause it's been so long since I've made a friend like youWell, I could dot the I's and you could cross the T's
'Cause letters alone are lonely
Well, I could be the blossom and you could be the bee
And then I could call you honey
You test my nerves, it makes me stronger
So can you bother me a little bit longer?Hate to say goodbye, goodbye
Hate to see the end, the end
'Cause it's been so long since I've made a friendHate to say goodbye, goodbye
Hate to see the end, the end
'Cause it's been so long since I've made a friend like youSome like to be alone, independent and on their own
All alone, I guess they're free but not me, not meHate to say goodbye, goodbye
Hate to see the end, the end
'Cause it's been so long since I've made a friendHate to say goodbye, goodbye
Hate to see the end, the end
'Cause it's been so long since I've made a friend like you
Hate to say goodbye, goodbye
Hate to see the end, the end
'Cause it's been so long since I've made a friend like youYes, it's been so long since I've made a friend like you
Yes, it's been so long since I've made a friend like you
Yes, it's been so long since I've made a friend like you
