City Dove

Tori Kelly

Don't what it's all about but every time I look around all I see is how we're holding on don't ask me what's wrong or right I don't ever know the time all I know is I'm holding onI haven't figured anything out I haven't figured anything anything anything out City dove fly between the buildings and fences soft inside but rough on the edges waiting here for something to come just holding on oh
city dove fly between the stars and the headlights passing by the clouds and the street signs knowing that there's something to come just holding on ohI don't really know my fate I just know I'm on my way there will be mistakes moving on I try to get to the heart of it fly low but looking for heaven I know I know I'm holding onI won't figure everything out I'll never figure everything everything everything out
City dove fly between the buildings and fences
knowing that there's something to come just holding on ohCity dove we fly high city dove we fly high city dove the headlights
city dove the street signswaiting here for something to come just holding on ohCity dove time between the stars and the headlights passing through the clouds and the street signs knowing that there's something to come just holding on oh yeah
