

Sunny Day

RollerBlue

I can see you standing, in a sunny day photo
No-one sees your shadow, falling over me
I can see you smiling,
like a flash light blinding
Fooling all of the people, most of the time

I can see you leaving
But I won't be grieving this time
You don't seem to know
That you're way on past your prime

Your mind plays tricks on me I couldn't see
The writing on the wall One step I wouldn't take Another fake and
Now its about to fall

I can hear you talking, like a wild thing stalking
Thought you had a grand plan, but missed the sign
Can you go the distance, meeting my resistance
Now you've stepped on way past, over the line

I can see you leaving
But I won't be grieving this time
You don't seem to know
That you're way on past your prime

Your mind plays tricks on me I couldn't see
The writing on the wall One step I wouldn't take Another fake and
Now its about to fall

To fall, to fall
Over me, over me
The tricks on me, the jokes on you
The tricks on me, the jokes on you

I can see you smiling
I can see you leaving
It's a sunny day
It's a sunny day
I'm over you
