Seeing Red

Pennywise

Sometimes when you're falling down
Why don't you think about the shit that you've done
Your vision's blurred and you can't even see
Who's staring in the reflectionMaybe you lost your way
And now you can't let go
All the dreams you had in life
Are the dreams you'll never knowYou're blind and you're broken
Now you're bleeding
You keep smashing your head up against the wall
And I won't do what you fucking tell me
And now your true colors, they have begun to showFuck off and dieI'm so tired and I'm feeling sick
Of your constant disrespecting
Now we're lost and so far from home
As we follow you delusionallyHow are you never wrong?
Who gave you the crown?
As you bite, spit and shout at us
You turn the whole world upside downYou're blind and you're broken
Now you're bleeding
As you smash your head against the wall
But I still won't do what you fucking tell me
And now your true colors, they have begun to showWhere did it all go wrong?
We've been at war too long
Where did it all go wrong?
Your future's fading and your past is goneWhere did it all go wrong?
We've been at war too long
Where did it all go wrong?
Now your true colors, they have been shownWhere did it all go wrong?
You are the walking dead
Where did it all go wrong?
I'm seeing red
I'm seeing redWhere did it all go wrong?
You are the walking dead
Where did it all go wrong?
I'm seeing red
I'm seeing red
I'm seeing red
I'm seeing red
