Hunter

Morgan James

If you see me riding past the open lane
Better make your way or get a dose of pain
So sweet
Turn your sugar to saltI`m a cold blood killer with a taste for Valleys
That can quench the thirsty in the darkened allies
So cold
Turn your fire to iceCHORUS
Cause if I set my sights upon you
No you will not hear a sound
You will fall when I am ready
Cause I`m a hunter
And I will hunt you downIf you feel me creeping round your cellar door
Better make it ready for me on the floor
I might turn your day to nightCHORUSIf you see me leaving out the road behind
You better just forget you ever crossed my mind my dear
Turn your hope to fearCHORUS
