Wings

Tori Kelly

verse 1:
yes
i have failed and theres so much more to learned but i have come so far and now i can be free at last chorus:
i wanna hear the sound of silence
fly away into the heavens open up my mind and hear you breath
sing a melody and feel it listen to the flawless rhythm comprehend the musicality i think I'm ready for my wings------- (adlib)
Verse 2:
yes
finally i don't care

what people think of me now i can go to a place no one knows i will sing and be thankful for every breath
chorus:
i think I'm ready for my wings------- (i really think I'm ready to fly) i think I'm ready for my wings
chorus:
(oh yea)i wanna hear the sound of silence

sing a melody(ooh yea) and feel it
comprehend the musicality (ooo)
