I'll Get Along Somehow

Ernest Tubb

Many months have come and gone since you called me on the phone
To tell me that we were through
You thought it'd break my heart but I fooled you from the start
Cause I never did trust youWell you thought you were mighty wise to run around with other guys
And still saying you were mine
While you had one or two, I had a dozen more than you, so you got the fooling that timeOh let it rain and let it snow, I don't care oh no no no, I'll never worry now
You're the one that wasn't fair, wasn't in you to play square, I'll get along somehowSo you keep going your way, I'll keep traveling mine
But at the end you'll need a friend, you'll be the one to sit and pine
So let it rain and let it snow, I don't care oh no no no, I'll get along somehow[piano - guitar]Well you thought you were mighty wise to run around with other guys, and still saying you were mine
While you had one or two, I had a dozen more than you, so you got the fooling that timeOh let it rain and let it snow, I don't care oh no no no, I'll never worry now
You're the one that wasn't fair, wasn't in you to play square, I'll get along somehowSo you keep going your way, I'll keep traveling mine
But at the end you'll need a friend, you'll be the one to sit and pine
So let it rain and let it snow, I don't care oh no no no, I'll get along somehow
