Alien Boys

Sarah Fimm

The alien boys are here today
Clicking their heels behind me
Chatter boy toys
They couldn't find me
I'm floating aboveI wanted to show you the milk of the moon
But you couldn't get past my name
If there is life in this room I invite you to leave
Never come back againThey come from the dark
And hide right behind the sun
In beams of the dead they travel
They travel too far.To tear me up
To break me down
To put me into the lion's mouthTo tear me up
you broke me down
You put me into the lion's mouth
And I want you to know.You tore me up
You broke me down
Alien Boy.
