My Friend

Nine Lashes

Sit down, escape, your lonely day
My treat, the love is one me
You seem so tired, but I'm understanding
So tell your story
You stumble, but it's alright

Say what you want to me, my friend
The words are growing bigger in my head
So take all you want from me, my friend
Even if it is nothing at all

You wanted all that your eyes could see
Maybe it will all be dealt in time
But the world will never
See you eye to eye
Or heart to heart
I know this
You stumble, but it's alright

Say what you want to me, my friend
The words are growing bigger in my head
So take all you want from me, my friend
Even if it is nothing at all

Haaaa
Haaaa
Haaaa

You stumble, but it's alright

Say what you want to me, my friend
The words are growing bigger in my head
So take all you want from me, my friend
Even if it is nothing at all

It's nothing at all
It's nothing at all
You stumble
The world's spinning around you now
