Same Time Tomorrow

Laurie Anderson

You knwo that little clock, the one on your vcr the one that's always blinking twelve noon because you never figured out how to get in there and change it? so it's always the same time just the
T came from the factory. good morning. good night. same time tomorrow. we're in record. so here are the questions: is time long or is it wide? and the answers? sometimes the answers just come in
Mail. and one day you get that letter you've been waiting for forever. and everything it says is true. and then in the last line it says: burn this. we're in record. and what I really want to kn
: are things getting better or are they getting worse? can we start all over again? stop. pause. we're in record. good morning. good night. now I in you without a body move. and in our hearts we Standby. good morning. good night.
