Revolution Screams

Anthrax

The ship is
Sinking the rats start to drown
Stunning
Such a beautiful violence abounds
Questions come easily
You got to
A world filled with chaos and rape
You got to
Hope springs eternally
You got to
Not from blind faith
The guilty will pay
Yeah, to the wall
Revolution calls and empires fall
Yeah, by any means
Revolution screams
Justice
Finding the truth that will out
Assassin
Comes from within or without
Questions come easily
You got to
A world filled with chaos and rape
You got to
Hope springs eternally
You got to

Not from blind faith
The guilty will pay
Yeah, to the wall
Revolution calls and empires fall
Yeah, by any means
Revolution screams
I had a dream, by any means
Revolution screams
Revolution screams
A sense of apathy
Crushed with the smallest resolve
This beautiful violence

As the powers come crumbling down
Revolution, who's side you are?
Revolution, who's side you are?
Revolution, who's side you are?
Revolution, who's side you are?
Scream
Yeah, to the wall
Revolution calls and empires fall
Yeah, by any means
Revolution screams
I had a dream, by any means
Revolution screams
Yeah, by any means
Revolution screams
